BUSINESS UPDATES

Message from the President & CEO

August has been a very quite month which is normal during the Holy month of Ramadan and subsequent Eid celebrations. However, it is excellent to see how successful our Website is becoming, which even just on recruitment is proving dividends for us.

A Group that is so diverse as ours needs structure and controlled communication so that our messages and information is posted to all staff regardless of their grade. Therefore, the launch of our Communication Boards in all Company lines is not only in keeping with International Standards of "Investors In People" but more importantly spreading all types of information and news to all of our staff in a controlled and uniform manner.

Third Quarter (Q3) is almost complete now and our focus must now be to push as hard as we can to deliver our Year End objectives.

I trust you find this month's issue interesting and look forward to advising you more of the exciting times in Dream Group in the coming months.

Jamal Alkooheji
President & CEO
